

Syllabus

Course Information
Course title:	Bloodborne Pathogens Refresher
Course number:	BBP0607
Course description:	This course meets the OSHA refresher training requirements for criminal justice officers. This course does not meet the length requirement to qualify for DCJS in-service credit.
Prerequisite(s):	Students below the rank of sergeant must be enrolled by a supervisor.
Course Requirements
Introduction:	This course is comprised of one training module.
Requirements:	Students must read the material contained in training module. After the student has read the material in the module, he must take the module quiz. In order to successfully complete the module quiz, the student must score 70%. The student will be given two opportunities to successfully complete the quiz. At the director's discretion, a third opportunity may be granted upon the request of the student's chief, sheriff or agency administrator.
Lesson
Objectives or Goals:	The purpose of this training is to provide information regarding personal safety against infectious disease and to define proper procedure in cases of exposure to bloodborne pathogens and other infectious diseases that are recommended by organizations such as The Occupational Safety &amp; Health Administration (OSHA) and The Center of Disease Control &amp; Prevention (CDC). This course does not meet the length requirement to qualify for DCJS in-service credit. Students who successfully complete this course will receive a letter of completion from the academy.
References
Resources:	The American Safety & Health Institute Centers for Disease Control and Prevention Occupational Safety and Health Administration, (29 CFR 1910.1030)